

Reserve October 18-20, 2020 to attend the Tenth Biennial AROHE Conference hosted by Arizona State University Emeritus College in Tempe, AZ.

The Association of Retirement Organizations in Higher Education (AROHE), ASU Emeritus College and ASU Retirees Association (ASURA) invite you to enjoy the opportunity to network with leaders of Retirement Organizations (ROs) and AROHE, and with administrators in higher education, researchers who study retirement, innovators in retirement and aging, and sponsors who offer support to retirees.

Please consider sharing your relevant expertise by presenting at a Concurrent Session and/or exhibiting at the Resource Exchange Fair, or by volunteering to help with local arrangements.

We are seeking proposals for presentations and exhibits in four overarching categories:

- Opportunities to Connect. What Retirement Organizations do for their members.
- Opportunities to Serve. What Retirement Organizations and their members do for their institutions and those in the wider community.
- Opportunities to Celebrate. What your organization has created and implemented that enhances retirement for those in higher education with a nomination for one of three AROHE Awards – Innovation, Distinguished Leadership, Distinguished Service.
- Re-Creating Retirement. What AROHE and regional consortiums do to help retirees Connect, Serve, and Celebrate.
